

NOTE TO FAMILIES

Example One

Dear Family,

I am looking forward to our upcoming conference scheduled for Tuesday, October 3rd at 10:00am. I have listed some questions below that could give me valuable information about your child. Please think about your responses so we can discuss them at the conference.

1. What school activities does your child talk about at home?
2. What does your child enjoy?
3. What does your child dislike?
4. What are your child's interests?

See you at the conference!

Example Two

Dear Family,

I am looking forward to our upcoming conference scheduled for Tuesday, October 3rd at 10:00am. I wanted to give you some idea about the questions you can expect to have answered during our conference.

1. How does my child react to guidance?
2. How does my child interact with his/her peers?
3. Is my child progressing developmentally at a level that is appropriate for him/her?

Please feel free to come with other questions or any concerns you may have. See you at the conference!
